RE: State Accreditation of Teacher Preparation Program- Anderson University

Anderson University agreed to host an accreditation visit in Spring 2001 based on NCATE's new performance-based standards. By being one of the first institutions to do so, Anderson University contributed to the refining of the implementation of these new standards. As a result, final approval of NCATE accreditation required more time while the Unit Assessment Board also evaluated its processes in light of the new standards. Anderson University should be commended for its efforts to assist in this implementation process.

The Board of Examiners Report indicated the following status of this program.

Standard 1	Standard 2	Standard 3	Standard 4	Standard 5	Standard 6
Met with new weakness at Initial Level	Met with two weaknesses	Met	Met with one weakness	Met	Met

Teacher Education Committee Recommendation:

Accreditation is continued at the initial teacher preparation and advanced preparation levels. The next on-site visit will take place in Spring 2006.
